

Gardening Workshops

at

Duthie Park

The Royal Horticulture Society of Aberdeen will be hosting a series of workshops at the Park, during 2016. The workshops are aimed at the amateur or beginner gardeners, and will provide tips on different aspects of gardening.

Each of the monthly workshops have a different theme with possible guest speakers, but at the end of each session, there will be an opportunity to ask questions on any of your gardening related problems.

Costs - Workshops are free, but there may be a small charge for materials.

Times - Sundays, 1.30 – 3.00pm
