

2018 GARDENING WORKSHOPS DUTHIE PARK

The Royal Horticultural Society of Aberdeen will be hosting a series of workshops at Duthie Park from August - December 2018.

The workshops are aimed at the amateur or beginner gardeners and will provide tips on different aspects of gardening.

Each of the monthly workshops have a different theme with possible guest speakers and will also have seasonal gardening tips on what you should be doing in the garden at that time of the year.

Costs – Workshops are free, but there may be small charges for materials, also donations are welcome to the RHSA.
